

Dear Congregant:

I would like to introduce myself to you. My name is Linda Cadel, and I am the President of the Women of Beth Shalom.

I joined The Women Of Beth Shalom three years ago when my husband and I moved to Columbus. The past two years I have been Vice-President Of Programming. I cannot tell you how fulfilling this experience has been for me.

Our group can be proud of our accomplishments over the past two years. We have sponsored such programs as: Bedtime Bundles, our annual Shabbat Women's Service, and our Chanukah Party. Our Women's & Young Ladies Seder was a great success again this year as were our two New Members Shabbats, which were held in the fall and in the spring. We provided Shabbat speakers on a variety of social concern issues.

We have a wonderful group of Officers and Board Members for 2004-2005 year. These gifted and caring women are:

Executive Board:

President	Linda Cadel
President Elect	Hilda Glazer
Past President	Fran Lamster
Treasurer	BeeDee Slyn
Secretary	Josie Taylor
Vice President Of Membership, Leadership, Communications	Hilda Glazer
Vice President Of Fundraising WRJ Projects	Susan Schiffer
Vice President Of Outreach Social Action	Janyce Katz
Vice President, Religious Living	Cindy Leland

Board Members:

Barbara McVay, Bette Young, Miriam Siegfried, Elle Kaufman, Carol Rich, Marci Golden, Judy Ankerman, Barbara Schwartz-Lilly, Terri Searfos, Paula B. Cohen, Lynn Dobb, Laurel Zulliger, Susan Bader, Tussy Shnider, Susan Bugenstein, Heather Apple, Connie Freundlich, Debbie Leasure, Rachel Laufer, Alexandria Klodell, Marci Carron, Karen Goldman-Moseley, and Babette Feibel.

The Women of Beth Shalom has something to offer every woman in our Temple family. We have projects and events to be enjoyed by women of all ages: moms of young children or experiencing the delights of your children's Bar/Bat Mitzvah year, working women, retired or an "empty nester," we know that you have something to offer us.

Our monthly board meetings are open to all women in the Temple. We invite you to come and share with us your wonderful ideas.

I look forward to seeing you at meetings and events during the year.

Linda Cadel
